Facts

7. On or about May 3, 2018, Jessica Bucio (“Bucio”) exited a bus that had arrived in Houston, Texas from Atlanta, Georgia. While Bucio was still at the bus station, Houston Police Department (“HPD”) Officers A. Alvarez and T. Walker, approached her, identified themselves as HPD officers by showing their police identification and badges, and asked to speak with her. Bucio agreed to speak with them.

8. Bucio appeared to be nervous throughout the conversation.

9. When asked where she was traveling from, Bucio stated that she was coming from Columbia, South Carolina and was continuing on to Morelia, Mexico, where she has a home. Bucio told the HPD officers that she flew from Mexico City to Atlanta on May 1, 2018 and then on to Columbia, South Carolina.

10. After Officer Walker asked Bucio if she had any identification, she produced a U.S. passport.

11. When asked about the nature of her travel to Columbia, South Carolina, Bucio responded that she went to Columbia to sell a ranch in her hometown of Morelia, Mexico. Officer Walker noticed that as the conversation progressed, Bucio’s tone became more hesitant and unsure.

12. Officer Alvarez asked Bucio if she had any narcotics or narcotics proceeds, and Bucio said no. Bucio consented to a search of the bag she was carrying and handed her purse to the officer. Officer Alvarez advised Bucio that she was not under arrest and had no obligation to allow officers to access her bags. Officer Alvarez told Bucio he could feel rectangular-shaped objects behind the lining in her purse. When asked what it was, Bucio responded that it was money. When asked how much money, Bucio responded that it was about $110,000. Bucio said she did not count the money. Bucio's suitcase was also searched; no money was found in her suitcase.

13. When asked where the money found in her purse came from, Bucio responded that the money belonged to her and that she had sold some property in Morelia, Mexico to a neighbor in Morelia. When asked the neighbor's name, Bucio said that she could not recall. Officer Walker asked Bucio why she had the sales proceeds with her if the property had been sold in Mexico. Bucio responded that the buyer lives in Morelia, Michoacan, Mexico but that the buyer told her that the money was in the United States so she flew from Mexico City to Atlanta to Columbia, South Carolina to pick up the money. Bucio said that an unknown male came to her hotel room in Columbia, gave her cash in a Dillard's shopping bag, and told her that the cash was separated in $5,000 bundles.

14. The Defendant Cash found in Bucio's purse was comprised of several stacks of cash that were bundled in rubber-bands in a manner consistent with proceeds from drug trafficking.

The Defendant Cash, which totaled $125,000, was in the following denominations:

• $100	x	483	=	$ 48,300.00
• $ 50	x	125	=	$ 6,250.00
• $ 20	x	3507	=	$ 70,140.00
• $ 10	x	31	=	$ 310.00

15. A package of rubber-bands was found in Bucio's purse in the same area where the Defendant Cash was found.

16. A trained canine alerted to the odor of narcotics coming from the Defendant Cash.

17. The Defendant Cash constitutes money furnished or intended to be furnished in exchange for a controlled substance, proceeds traceable to such an exchange, or money used or intended to be used to facilitate a violation of the Controlled Substances Act.
